MABELLE

Mabelle is an unincorporated community nine miles east of Seymour. The community is at the intersection of Highways 82, 183, 277, 283, and Farm to Market Road 1790.

A post office was granted on Dec. 13 of that year and was named Mabelle for the daughter of resident J. T. Thompson.

Mabelle continued as a small trade center despite a damaging tornado that struck the town about 1923.

Along the way, they ran out of gas near Mabelle. After fueling up in Mabelle, Elvis and the boys arrived at the Seymour High School auditorium after most of the audience had left, but they still managed to perform for the handful of people who remained.

The post office was discontinued about 1962.

HOLLIDAY

The City of Holliday is located on U.S. Highways 277 and 82, 10 miles southwest of Wichita Falls in north central Archer County. It was established July 14, 1891, when G.P. Meade dedicated the roads, streets and alleys of Holliday forever for public use.

Holliday is named after Captain John Holliday, a member of the B.L. Lawrence Company of Volunteers who came to help fight for Texas Independence from Mexico.

Captain Holliday was a survivor of the fight against Santa Anna in the Massacre at Goliad on March 19, 1836. After escaping Mexican captivity, he swam the Wichita River and hid in the mesquite trees.

Captain Holliday camped at a point where the river met a creek and carved his name in a tree there. Pioneers who later settled in the area named it Holliday, taken from the name carved in the tree.

WICHITA FALLS

Wichita Falls was formed as a town on Sept. 27, 1872 and named after a small waterfall on the Wichita River. On that day, a sale of town lots took place at what is now

A flood in 1886 destroyed the original falls, and after nearly 100 years of visitors wanting to visit the nonexistent falls, the city built an artificial waterfall beside the river in Lucy Park that has become a popular photo point.

Lucy Park is a 170-acre park with a log cabin, duck pond, swimming pool, playground, disc golf course and several picnic areas throughout the park.

It is the largest of 37 parks throughout the city.

Also enjoy an off-leash dog park within Lake Wichita Park and a skatepark adjacent to the city's softball complex.

Wichita Falls is the home of the annual Hotter'N Hell Hundred, the largest century bicycle ride in the United States.

The Professional Wrestling Hall of Fame relocated to Wichita Falls from Amsterdam, N.Y., in November 2015.

Wichita Falls also is home to Midwestern State University, an accredited four-year college; Wayland Baptist University and a local branch of nearby Vernon College both offer associate degrees. The city owns and operates Castaway Cove a 15-acre waterpark located on Hwy. 82.

The city also is home to a shopping mall, two mini golf course, a bowling alley and two recently remodeled movie theaters.

JOLLY

The Fort Worth and Denver City Railway established Jolly as a shipping point in 1890 and a post office was opened the following year. Rancher/farmer William H. Jolly is the town's namesake.

By 1895 Jolly had a population of 75 served by six businesses. The population remained constant from the mid-1920s through the mid '60s. By the late 1970s the town swelled to a population of 75 - perhaps because of nearby Lake Arrowhead State Recreation Area. It has since grown to the present population of 188.

West of Jolly along Hwy 82 there is the shell of an abandoned home known as Witches' Gate. The story behind the structure began on a Saturday night in mid-July 1975. Brothers Jim and Kenneth Keith were preparing for bed when Kenneth heard voices coming from his brother's room, and, as he approached, he heard a gunshot. He found his brother in a pool of blood; he had been shot in the back.

The killer then tied Kenneth to a chair, releasing him briefly to open a safe and then retied him. Kenneth managed to free himself and drove to the Jolly truck stop where he phoned police. Four men were indicted for the robbery and murder.

In February of 1976, when Clyde Burns, one of the four indicted in Jim's murder was arrested, the house was torched. It was almost certainly arson, but there was never a formal investigation.

As with many abandoned houses or ruins, stories spring up about ghosts, and ghostly happenings. When a particularly red sun sets on the horizon, it can appear that the Keith brothers' home is again on fire.

HENRIETTA

Hometown hospitality awaits you when you visit this small town. Henrietta serves as the county seat for Clay County and is nestled in the rolling plains of North Central Texas.

The area offers many opportunities for the outdoor enthusiast including fishing, hunting, water sports, hiking, camping and nature photography.

Clay County offers some of the best produce in the area. Check out Young's Orchard and pick some fresh strawberries.

Henrietta is located on U.S. Highway 82, 18 miles east of Wichita Falls, 100 miles northwest of Fort Worth and 150 miles southwest of Oklahoma City.

RINGGOLD

Ringgold is an unincorporated community in Montague County, with an estimated population of 100 people. The town's major industry is cattle ranching.

The area around Ringgold was first settled in 1892, when a landowner began selling parcels of land where the Rock Island Line railroad built a line.

In 1936 when the Texas Highway Department was paving Highway 82 and Highway 287 near Ringgold, sand for the concrete was taken from a nearby pit, opened three years earlier.

The grains glistened with such intensity that a small supply was sent to a Fort Worth laboratory for assessment.

The report came back that the sand contained gold. From the pit, eventually came $250,000 in gold--all part of the sand. It is said that as much as $31,000 is distributed along 39 miles of roadway. Some $25,000 in U.S. Highway 81 and $6,000 in U.S. Highway 287. The remainder has gone into other construction in the region, including numerous buildings in which concrete has been used.

The Highways Paved with Gold even got a mention on "Ripley's Believe It or Not!"

NOCONA

Nocona is rich in history and alive with opportunity. From its famed western heritage and well-established leather industries to its classic car venues and family-friendly activities, Nocona continues Nocona has a lake approximately 10 miles north of the city named Lake Nocona. It is a recreational and municipal lake popular with people from across north central Texas and the city water supply.

On Lake Nocona sits Nocona Hills, an attractive gated lakeside "city" with many homes, a hotel, golf course, landing strip and other amenities.

Nocona is home to an 18-hole golf course, hospital, Tales 'N' Trails Museum and a large city park that features tennis courts, basketball goals, sand volleyball, a skate park and new playground equipment.

Nocona's largest festival is Mardi Gras Nocona Style! that is celebrated over a long weekend in February. Cruisin' Nocona and Vicari Car Auction also are popular events that take place in May.

SAINT JO

Saint Jo is located at the heart of North Texas Hill Country. The oldest town in Montague County, Saint Jo is home to a 1,000 friendly people who all enjoy a relaxed lifestyle, unique downtown square, scenic beauty and a colorful community history.

Come visit the historic Chisholm Trail Square, commemorating the famous cattle trail that saw millions of livestock driven through the Saint Jo area in route north to Kansas. Stop in the Stonewall Saloon Museum, the International Ordnance Museum and Davis and Blevins Gallery located on the north side of the square.

Also be sure to visit the wineries north of town.

MUENSTER

Muenster's roots date back to 1877 when August and Caroline Pulte, German-Catholics, first settled in Cooke County.

In February 1889, August wrote a series of letters to the St. Louis-based German periodical "Amerika" noting the suitability of land in the area. These letters came to the attention of Emil Flusche, who along with his brothers, Anton and August, became the founding force behind Muenster.

The Flusches made efforts to specifically attract German-Catholics to their communities. This practice continued with the founding of Muenster. The discovery of oil in the area during the 1920s led to new developments. Oil brought economic growth and new people to the community. To accommodate the growth brought about by the economic prosperity, Muenster became a legally incorporated city in 1927. At present, Muenster's population is 1,600 people, most of whom are descendants of the original German-Catholics who first settled the community in the late 19th century.

Muenster's German heritage is celebrated during Germanfest in April and

Davis & Blevins Saint Jo

Oktoberfest every October.

LINDSAY

In 1887 the Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railroad constructed a line from Gainesville to Henrietta that passed through the site that would become Lindsay.

The story of its founding closely resembles that of its neighbors along the railway such as Muenster. In 1891, Anton and August Flusche arranged for transfer of 9,300 acres along the railway in order to found a new town, which they named after a local judge.

They attracted several German Catholic settlers in the following years.

The date of Lindsay's founding is officially recognized as March 25, 1892, when the first mass was held; however, Lindsay was not formally incorporated until 1959.

The city has maintained some German traditions, including an annual Oktoberfest. As is typical in the region, the main industries are farming, principally dairy farming and oil production.

GAINESVILLE

Gainesville, county seat of Cooke County, is in the geographic center on Interstate 35 located approximately 67 miles north of Dallas.

In 1850, Gainesville was established on a 40-acre tract of land donated by Mary E. Clark.

During the Civil War, the Great Hanging, a controversial trial and hanging of suspected Union loyalists brought the new town to the attention of the state and came close to ripping the county apart. The episode was one of those normal events in an abnormal era.

Medal of Honor Host City Park, Gainesville

In the late 1870s two factors drastically altered the historic landscape of North Central Texas. The first of these was barbed wire.

In 1875, Henry B. Sanborn, a regional sales agent for Joseph Glidden's Bar Fence Company of DeKalb, III. traveled to Texas.

That autumn, he chose Gainesville as one of his initial distribution points for the newly invented barbed wire which his employer had patented the previous year.

In the 1880s the Katy Railroad finished a line of track connecting Gainesville to the largest railway system in America. Learn more about the history of the railroad in Gainesville at the Santa Fe Depot Museum.

The Medal of Honor Host City Program was established in 2001 to provide residents with a more interactive connection with America's history, the military and the veteran community.

Also visit the Frank Buck Zoo, take a ride on the Frankie Schmitz Express Train or catch a movie at the local theater.

OAK RIDGE

The Town of Oak Ridge is located in Eastern Cooke County situated between Gainesville and Whitesboro.

Peaceful, lovely and well organized are some of the attributes locals use to describe this community in Cooke County with only 225 residents and less than half a mile radius.

With a population density of 1,683 people per square mile, picture a community where kids of all ages can walk to school, play in the park or take a dip in the pool.

You can attend the nearby community college and your entire family will appreciate close, quick and easy access to a wide variety of nearby entertainment and shopping venues.

WHITESBORO

Whitesboro was once known as Wolfpath. The first settler in the area was Robert Diamond, but the settlement of Wolfpath began with the arrival of Ambrose B. White and his family in 1848.

The Butterfield Overland Mail route used White's Westview Inn as the Diamond Station on its trail from the Mississippi River to the Pacific Coast from 1858 to 1861. A post office, under the name Whitesborough, began operations there in 1860.

After the Civil War, Whitesborough grew into a frontier town where female residents were prohibited from leaving their homes on Saturday nights because shootings were so common.

By 1879, it had a bank, a newspaper, and train service from Denison, Texas on a line from the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad. In 1887, city leaders altered the spelling of its name to Whitesboro.

Whitesboro is home to an annual peanut festival featuring live entertainment, more than 200 shopping booths, parade, carnival and more.

SHERMAN

Sherman is the county seat of Grayson County with a population of more than 38,000. Sherman was named after a hero in the Texas revolution General Sidney Sherman.

It was a stop along the Butterfield Stage Route, and Jesse James was spotted in town several times during and after the Civil War. He was said to have spent part of his honeymoon in Sherman.

In 1876, Austin College relocated to Sherman from Huntsville and is the oldest continuously operating college in Texas.

Sherman now boasts seven museums, 16

parks and two lakes.

Visit the Outlaw Trails Museum or the Jazz Museum downtown or stop in at the Harbor Wildlife Musuem.

Sherman also has an escape room, movie grill, skatepark, disc golf course and much more.

The goal of the project was complete restoration of the original church. The church has many beautifully stylized paintings and hand painted statues. The church is opened to visitors each day during daylight hours.

SEMI-PRO SOCCER

Semi-pro soccer is coming to the Wichita Falls area this spring as FC Wichita Falls and the other three teams from West Texas, Lubbock and Amarillo plan to kick off the inaugural season of the U.S. Arena Professional Soccer League. Scheduled to start in April, FC Wichita Falls will play indoors at the Kay Yeager Coliseum.

There plans to be a contest on the club's Facebook page at some point in the future to have a fan vote for the team's name.

Team owner Stephanie Tucker has owned an indoor football team in Amarillo for the last eight years. She plans to run it like a business with the intent to entertain fans who come out to the games with constant things happening coupon giveaways, shopping carts on the field or free T-shirts being thrown into the stands.

Tickets will be affordable, but their price and a league schedule has not been announced at this time. Keep a lookout for them at the FC Wichita Falls Facebook page for more information as it comes available.
